The latest thing in souvenir post cards is from W. H Yeager, of Cheyenne, under the caption of Utah's best crop. According to the thousand and one baby pictures and forty bee hives, race suicide and a scarcity of honey are not the things to trouble the mind in the Mormon State.

At a recent meeting of the Grand Lodge of Oddfellows at Charleston, it was decided to accept the offer of the Elkins Board of Trade of a free site, conditioned on the building of an Oddfellows Orphans Home there. The grounds cover five acres, and the proposed building will cost over $60,000. It is proposed to erect a Home for the aged and fatherless of the organization second to that of no other State.

From a letter by Rev Moore McNeil, of Smithville, we learn of the death of Mrs Mary Hartmar, nee Burner, formerly of this county, in the 81st year of her age She and her husband and family refugeed to this county during the war and lived at the mouth of Stamping Creek. Mrs Hartman was amost excellent woman and a faithful member of the M. E. Church, South. She is survived by a highly respectbale family of sons and daughters.

The question of whether or not dogs are property, was threshed over in Justice Bird's court Saturday in the case of State of West Virginia against Warwick Ratliff. Dave Sharp was the prosecuting witness, and the controversy was over the guardianship of one hound, known as "Ball" a noted bear dog, once owned by the late lamented J. H. G. Wilson. The Squire very promptly turned the case out of court. We have always held that a dog is a member of his owner's family, and the proceedings against the man who carries him off should be along the same lines as against him who carries off sons or kidnaps a child.

PIGS' EARS RAIDED

Prosecutor Hill is After the Dunlevie Retailers.

Lincoln Cochran, Pat and Ebb Simmons, and S. T. Ruckman raided the illicit retailers at Dunlevie Tuesday night, and brought three prisoners and a cloud of witnesses to town Wednesday morning. They also correlled a lot of whiskey and gambling utensils and bar fixtures, which followed on the afternoon train, in charge of Mr Cochran, who also brought with him Grant Halterman who seems to have gotten in the habit of being pulled and put under bond for illicit retailing.

Three places were raided, and on account of the insufficient number of officers, a lot of witnesses made their escape. One joint was pulled by Pat Simmons single handed. There were two doors, and a number of the inmates made good their escape, but he got our friend John McGraw and another. Johnny is Irish and nearly seventy years old, but as piert as a cricket. He is a veteran of the Civil war, and did his best to volunteer in the war with Spain. He has always worked in the woods, but this season he sought an indoor job, as wind was too short to drive grabs any longer.

The "Ice House" after its raid by S. T. Ruckman and Ebb Simmons was the scene of a riot. A man named Smith, for whom warrants have been out a number of months, and who is accounted an all-round bad man, and another who refused to reveal his identity, attempted to over power the officers and escape. A half dozen men assaulted Ruckman, and some one hit him with a chair. He got his gun out and plowed a furrow through the unknown man's front lock. About that time Ebb Simmons got into the game with the butt end of his gun and peacified the assemblage. Smith and his partner were then handcuffed.

Since the former raids the saloons have been running worse than ever before. They have been put out of business at Durbin, and the hangers on have flocked to Dunlevie. They however had been expecting to be raided at any time, and unusually kept men on the look out for the officers, but Tuesday night their vigilence was relaxed for the first time. The officers, well known at Dunlevie, had gone to Durbin several days ago, and in going on to Dunlevie, went up the track from the depot and got in the baggage car from the blind side. They were no sooner seated behind the door than the man Smith came although the train looking for officers and opened the baggage car door. He did not see the deputies, and got off at Dunlevie. The officers then went on to Winterburn, and walked back to Dunlevie.

Warrants were out for Church Waybright and two others. Waybright was taken to Charleston to answer indictments in the Federal Court last week, and the others have not been seen for a number of days.

It is up to these people to get out of business and that right quickly, but so determined are they that the prosecutor must be eternally vigilent.

A match game pool has been arranged between Marlinton and Ronceverte to take place Thursday afternoon at the latter place. Ronceverte's representatives are Messers Frye, Workman and Felix and one other. Marlinton will put forward Dr Guilford, Dr Carter, W. A. Bratton and A. J. Livesay.

R. B. Slavin was the representative of Marlinton Lodge 182, I. O. O. F., at the meeting of the Grand Lodge of West Virginia, which convened in the historic city of Charlestown, Wednesday November 21 It was a most interesting and enthusiastic meeting, and attended by the leading business and professional men of the State.

Preceding the regular session a public meeting was held in the Court house. The golden keys of the town, bourne on a silver platter by two little girls, were presented to the Grand Master by the Mayor. An eleoquent address of welcome was delivered by Bishop Gravett, response was made by Hon Virgil A. Lewis, historian and State Archivist. The address was especially interesting by reason of its historical value. The order was founded in Baltimore in 1819 by Thomas A. Wildey, who was a member of a similar organization in England. The first lodge in Virginia was orgaized at Harpers Ferry in 1833, as Virginia Lodge No. 1: The Oddfellows are now the strongest order in the world and its lodges are found every where meeting weekly to relieve the needy, aid the sick, the widow and the orphan, and educate the children of indigent members.

The Oddfellows of West Virginia own 110 acres near Elkine and one of the important things attended to by the recent meeting of the Grand Lodge was the arranging to build a home for indigent Oddfellows. their widows and orphans, in which they may enjoy the comforts of home and their children be fitted to enter the battle of life.

For a number of years contributions have been made to this fund which now amounts to $50,000. In addition, an assessment of $1 will be made upon each member this year. In this State there are 280 subordinate lodges, with a membership of over 20,000. This does not include the Encampment, Canton Militant or the Daughters of Rebekah.

The mission of the Oddfellow is a glorious one. Of all the organizations whose aim is the uplifting of humanity, there is none which appeals more to the higher nature of man, calling into exercise his nobler qualities, than the teachings of Oddfellowship.

Breaks Up "C.-O.-D." Business

Charleston, W. Va..—That the notorious "C. O. D." liquor business must be abolished in West Virginia is the decision of Judge Dayton, of the United States Court for the Northern District of West Virginia, who is presiding over the session of the Federal Court in this city in the absence of Judge Keller.

A number of liquor firms which have been doing an immense business throughout this State in "C O. D." packages were summoned to appear at the present session of court. At today's session of court attorneys for a number of liquor firms of Cincinnati, Covington and Columbus, against whom are indictments charging illicit liquor-selling, asked the court to quash the indictments. The Court would not consent to the indictments being canceled until the firms had promised never again to ship "C. O D" packages to any point in this State. The defendants were also made to pay the fines imposed by the internal revenue department in addition to the costs of the prosecution.

Hotel Men Meet

The annual meeting of the West Virginia Hotel Keeper's Association will be held in Huntington on December 11 at which time plans for the enactment of laws, governing the hotels of the state will be formed and brought before the coming legislature.

A whiskey house has been sending out circulars, promising to $25 in gold to the child who sent in the best rhyme, in which the firm's name and business was to appear. A Pocahontas ten year old, who has been brought up in the way she should think in regard to temperance, has mailed the following, and is confidently expecting her reward:

Oh, Kellerstrauss, Kellerstrauss,
Though maybe not mad,
Are engaged in business certainly bad.
If you want heaven when with life you are done.
Just close out your stock and quit selling rum.
Oh, Kellerstrauss, Kellerstrauss,
Why in creation.
Do you want to deal on such liquid damnation?
Better stop in time before it's too late,
For God will judge at the beautiful gate.

THERE IS A REASON FOR CHEWING REYNOLDS' SUN CURED TOBACCO

Chewers becoming tired of heavily sweetened sun cured tobaccos caused REYNOLDS' SUN CURED to quickly win from the old brands of much longer standing the place as favorite with sun cured chewers, because it contains just enough proper sweetening and flavoring to preserve the quality of the leaf and enhance its goodness, causing a large increase in the demand for sun cured tobaccos.

REYNOLDS' SUN CURED

is not only pure sun cured, but it is made from choice selections of the genuine sun cured leaf grown where the best sun cured tobacco grows. It is like that you formerly got, costing from 60c. to $1.00 per pound, and is sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts; strictly 10c. plugs, and is the best value in sun cured tobacco that can be produced for chewers.
